

Dr. Susie Michailidis

Dr. Susie Michailidis, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at Webster University Athens is an educator and scholar with more than thirty years of experience.

As a researcher and member of the Academy of Sciences of Georgia, Academy of Natural Sciences of Russia and Vice President of the Euro-Mediterranean Academy of Arts and Sciences, she has a record in scholarship and vast publications in the fields of philology, literature, literary criticism, philosophy, history and social sciences. One of the last publications is: Michailidis, S. Kervalishvili, P. " Philosophy and Synergy of Information: Sustainability and Security." NATO

Science for Peace and Security Series. IOS Press. Amsterdam, Berlin, Tokyo, Washington DC, 2012

She has several scientific honors. Dr. Michailidis was included in "2000 Outstanding Scholars of the 20th century for the contribution in the field of Comparative Literature and Literary Criticism" and her name is in several editions of "Who is Who in the World", "Who is Who in Greece" as well.

Dr. Michailidis' mission has always been based on her experience to demonstrate a managerial role at an institution of higher learning providing an excellent liberal education as well as dedication, commitment and ability to create and develop diverse programs and projects. During her career in the institutions of higher learning and research, she naturally uses loyalty, integrity, and dependability in working with the student body, faculty, and staff. She is proficient in several foreign languages with very good command of communication in multicultural settings.