

Prof. Dr. Rasha El-Kholy

Vice President for Education and Students' Affairs

Egyptian Chinese University, Egypt

Email: rasha.elkholy@ecu.edu.eg

Prof. El-Kholy has 25 years of experience in the fields of sustainable development, water resources management, Water Energy Food WEF nexus, environmental protection, entrepreneurship and community service. Currently Prof. El-Kholy is holding the position of Vice President for the Egyptian Chinese University ECU for Education and Students' Affairs, Director of Research, Innovation and Entrepreneurship Center ECU- RIE-HUB and Director of Technology, Innovation Commercialization Office ECU-TICO.

El-Kholy is a Senate of the EuroMediterranean University EMUNI. With her wide exposure to Egyptian and European education and research she has formulated and presented curricula, bylaws, developmental programs, and policies for the consideration of many engineering faculties of private universities based on innovative approaches with relevance to real life cases.

Dr. Rasha has managed many local / foreign research projects funded by EU (Tempus, Erasmus+, H2020, Prima, Italian Development Cooperation) and several Egyptian Agencies (ASRT, STDF) . She also served as a short-term international consultant and trainer for the Food and Agriculture organization FAO-UN and is deeply involved with several international organizations.